

Delight

1 How do people express delight? Underline the actions.

hitting the wall

crying

jumping up and down

booing

clapping their hands

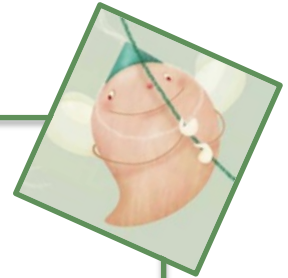

laughing out loud

2 Ask two people you know how they express delight, and write down their answers.

Open answer

3 What does delight mean to you? Draw a picture.

Open answer

4 Read the text on page 28 of the EMOTIONARY and write T (true) or F (false) next to the sentences below.

F Delight lasts a long time.

T Delight is caused by something pleasant.

T When you are delighted, you feel playful.

F Delight and happiness last the same length of time.

F The opposite of delight is joy.

● Now correct the false sentences.

Delight is short-lived.

Happiness can last longer than delight.

Delight is the same as joy.

5 Find words in the text which mean the opposite of the words below:

long-lived → short-lived negatively → positively

6 Write down two characteristics of delight.

You feel more energetic and you think more positively.

7

Complete the sentences using words from the delight family.

delight > delighted delightful delightedly to delight

- Going on the big wheel is a delightful moment for me.
- My cousin was delighted when he won the 100 metre race at school.
- 'I jumped higher than you,' he said, delightedly.
- My grandma's cakes delight everyone who tries them.

8

Make nouns from these adjectives.

joyful → joy

contented → contentment

pleasant → pleasure

intense → intensity

enjoyable → enjoyment

playful → playfulness

happy → happiness

energetic → energy

9

The text says that delight is caused by something pleasant. Write an example of something that causes you delight.

Sample answer: an unexpected visit from a friend, a good mark in a test, a funny thing that your dog does, ...

10 Write down some things that have made you feel delighted today.

Open answer

11 The text says that happiness and delight are different. Explain what the differences are. You can use the words below.

intense

long short

Delight is more intense than happiness. It lasts a shorter time, but you can have a lot of delightful moments in one day. Happiness can last for a long time.

12 Why are the characters in the illustration delighted? Write your answers in the speech bubbles. Open answers

A speech bubble with a green border and a horizontal line for writing.

A speech bubble with a red border and three horizontal lines for writing.

A speech bubble with a green border and three horizontal lines for writing.

A speech bubble with a red border and three horizontal lines for writing.

